

Administrative Violations

Production or operation of the food listed below constitutes an administrative violation and is subject to a fine of MOP 50,000 to MOP 600,000 even without actual harm to individuals' health:

1. Food incorporated with non-food raw materials or chemical substances other than food additives;
2. Food that contains waste or expired food as raw materials;
3. Food that contains the meat of animals that died of diseases or died from poison or unknown causes, parts of such animals or products made from such animals;
4. Food that contains uninspected substances that are legally subject to inspection or those that have failed inspection;
5. Food that has been adulterated, spoiled or deteriorated;
6. Food that fails to meet food safety standards.

This leaflet is for reference only. To learn about the details of the "Food Safety Law", please refer to Law No. 5/2013 "Food Safety Law" or scan the QR code below with your mobile phone.

食安專線
Linha aberta sobre Segurança Alimentar • Food Safety Hotline
 2833 8181

www.iam.gov.mo